Appendix 3

Attitudes to use of low-dose opioids for treatment of dyspnea in advanced Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD): A Study of Physicians in Nova Scotia

STATUS AND DEMOGRAPHICS Form	Study PID Number:
This form is to be completed during or following the participant	interview by the Site Research Coordinator/ Interviewer.
Participant's Initials: Last	Gender (circle one): F or M
Age:	Where do you practice: Urban Rural
Discipline: Family Medicine Palliative Medicine Internal Medicine	Employment status: Full-time
_ Respirology	Part-time
Years of experience caring for patients with advanced COPD:
Area of practice: HospitalCommunity
Ethnic/Racial Group – self assessed	Education – highest level achieved
Asian/Pacific Islander	College diploma
African/Black North American Caucasian	Attended university University degree
East Indian Native Canadian	Post graduate degree Other (specify):
Other (specify):
Name of Site Research Coordinator/Interviewer:
Signature:
	YYYY MMM DD